

Environmentalist

7607 Romeria St.
Carlsbad, CA 92009
760.445.8938
natalie@halabuk.com

Job Objective	To contribute my environmental knowledge to helping a company become more sustainable and profitable. (Portfolio Sample: https://nataliehalabuk.wordpress.com)
Education	2011 – 2015 University of Redlands (Redlands, CA) Bachelor of Arts: Environmental Studies Funded 50% through merit scholarships Emphasis: Sustainability and Green Business Study Abroad: Salzburg, Austria TRAIN Leadership Program Fall 2013 2012
Honors & Awards	Dean’s List 2013 & 2014 Presidential Scholarship 2011 – 2015 Presidential Baker Endowment Scholarship 2011 – 2015 Achievement Award Scholarship 2011 – 2015
Work Experience	2013 – 2014 RevSustainability (formerly True Market Solutions) Operations and Sales Intern (2 summers) • Assisted sales team by identifying prime target companies • Maintained sales contact database (Insightly) ○ Added thousands of leads ○ Developed and refined categorization system ○ Cleaned up hundreds of inaccurate, duplicate and miscoded records • Coordinated and documented minutes for company-wide trainings • Conducted research for sustainability curriculum updates Citizens Climate Change2013 Intern • Prepared briefings, bios, and background for annual visits to DC to meet with State Delegates and Senators about new environmental policies University of Redlands2012 – 2015 Math Department TA • Graded calculus homework and lab assignments for Math Professors, including the head of the math department Tutor • Tutored college and high school students in finite math and algebra Pacific Ridge High School2012 College Counselor Intern • Prepared seniors for the college admissions process

	Hendo's Local Pizza	2011
	Cashier
Community Service	San Bernardino Animal Shelter	2013 – 2015
	Volunteered weekly during school years
	Nova Scotia Species At Risk, Environmental Science Senior Trip	2011
	Volunteered at PEI and Kejimikujik Park to help protect endangered shorebirds, the Piping Plover and endangered Blanding's Turtles
	Costa Rica	2010
	Aided in leatherback turtle conservation, worked on a ranch, and taught English to school children
	National Charity League (NCL)	2007 – 2011
	Volunteered for Children's Hospital, Meal-on-Wheels, My Girl Friend's Closet, Interfaith, Operation Boot Camp
Personal	Founding class of Pacific Ridge School (LEED Gold)	2007 – 2011
	Blanchard Leadership Training, leadership workshop based on the situational leadership model of Ken Blanchard	2007
	Lived in Switzerland and attended Swiss elementary school	1997 – 1998
	Traveled to 25 countries in Europe, Asia, North and Central America
	Foreign languages: conversant in Spanish and German, studied French and Mandarin Chinese

